

Plant Life

Ever wondered what that marsh plant with the delicate flowers is? You may be able to find it here in the Ellisville Plant Sampler (.pdf) . All photos courtesy of Irina Kadis and Alexey Zinovjev. For a more comprehensive listing of Ellisville plants compiled by Irina and Alexey, visit their web site at www.salicicola.com/checklists/Ellisville/

Click here for an underwater video of the eelgrass beds just offshore from Ellisville beach. Note the rich vegetation and wildlife of this protected habitat. Video courtesy of Henry Riter, former Friends director (c)2012. CAN YOU FIND THE LOBSTER?
