

Savery Pond

The Savery Pond Initiative was officially launched by the Friends of Ellisville Marsh in 2012. The goals of the initiative include: preventing algal blooms, managing nutrient inputs, restoring & protecting ecological function, maintaining multiple pond uses, and engaging/building community around these activities. Consistent with our progress toward fully achieving these goals, we have expanded information resources available to SPI supporters and other interested parties. YOU CAN ENTER THE SAVERY POND ENHANCED INFORMATION REPOSITORY BY CLICKING HERE